SUSPENSION FOR BOREL

W. G. YANKE'S JOCKEY IS INDEFINITELY SUS-PENDED AT CHARLESTON

Ruling of Stewards Follows Poor Showing of His Employer's Sprinter, Oakland in Race That The Turk Wins-Day of Formful Results.

Employer's Sprinter, Oakland in Race That The Turk Wins—Day of Formful Results.

Charleston, S. C., January 21.—The chief incident in connection with the Palmetto Park racing of this afternoon developed in the third race and as a result, the stewards issued the following ruling: "For his ride on Oakland in the third race of this date, jockey C. Berel is indefinitely suspended." The race in question was won by R. F. Carman's one-time crack. The Turk, in a hard drive with Lost Fortune and Amoret. Oakland finished in the rear after a brief display of speed. He started to retire at the half mile ground. Borel was questiened by the stewards after weighing in regarding the horse's poor performance and he attributed it to interference from which he suffered at the half mile ground. Oakland was a joint favorite with The Turk, but lack of support caused his odds to recede. Oakland's showing in the race was below that of his former races here, but the consensus of opinion appears to be that Borel tried with his mount and that he did suffer interference at the point he claimed. On The Turk's best form he completely outclassed the starters in the race and the good price against him was due to the timidity of the public. This horse, at times badly broken down, had started only on three occasions in the past four years prior to today and the bettors were a but charry as to his ability to finish the race with out again breaking down. He won after a brilliant stretch sprint and pulled up in good shape.

Favorites and well-backed contenders accounted for most of the purses, resulting in profit to the taleat and form students. The worst disappointment attended the closing dash when Wood Dove, quoted at odds-on, failed to get any part of the purse.

Jockey Obert sigalized his return to the saddle after a fifteen-days suspension imposed by the starter by piloting two winners. On Zindel he displayed ability and skill by taking his mount back behind Norma Land causing the latter to serve as a guard against Zindel bolting handicap at

HIGHBRIDGE RETURNS TO AMERICA.

New York, Jan. 21—Highbridge, the jumper that John R. Fell sent abread in the Fall of 1912 in the hope of winning the Liverpool Grand National of last year, is back home. He returned on the Minnewaska of the Atlantic Transport line last Monday. The old fellow stood the trip well and he will probably be heard from among the best of the jumpers when the season opens. James K. Frayling, who fitted Highbridge for all of his good races in America, went with him to England and also returned with him.

itted Highbridge for all of his good races in America, went with him to England and also returned with him.

Though Highbridge did not win a race while away his performances were creditable and although he fell at the first fence in the running of the Grand National. that mishap was in no measure a disgrace. Of the twenty-two that started there were only two that completed the course without a tumble. The big son of Bridgewater and Duress was treated harshly by the handicappers in England and when the weight he packed in bandicaps is taken into consideration his showing was meritorious. He was started six times in England and besides the Grand National the only other time he came to brief was in the running of the Cheshire Handicap Hundle, in which he took up 175 pounds.

Trainer Frayling also took him to Germany, but be net with no better success there, though he inslied second in a steeplechase among the best horses.

It was not surprising to good judges that High-bridge did no better abroad, for when he was sent after the most coveted of cross-country races it was pointed out that Mr. Fell had a wonderful confidence in his horse that was not shared by confidence in his horse that was not shared by others.

Highbridge is now an eight-year-old and appears to be in condition to go on for several seasons. He is a horse of excellent conformation and stands up well under training. He will be raced by Mr. Fell in America this year.

Fred Williams, the American jockey who rode Highbridge in the Grand National, has met with a good measure of success abroad. He was taken over by S. C. Hidreth when that horseman was handling the horses of the late Charles Kohler in France. For a considerable time Williams had no end of trouble in obtaining mounts, but he finally had an opportunity and at the end of the recent season his services were greatly in demand.

It is probable that Gifford A. Cochran will be the next American sportsman to make a serious bid for the Livetpool Grand National. His good jumper Postboy is now in Ireland, and it is the intention to point him for the big race at Liverpool.

GALLAHER BROS.' HORSES IN TRAINING.

Lexigton, Ky., January 21.—Gallaher Bros. today took up Rash, Sun Queen, Howdy Howdy, Hoffman, Just Y. and Daisy Platt. They already had in training at the Kentucky Association track Duval, seven two-year-olds and the three-year-old bay filly Mary Michaels (half-sister to G. M. Miller), by Lissak—Subdue, a half interest in which they bought a few days ago from Hart Brown, of this city.

ANOTHER PURSE FOR BONNE CHANCE.

Horse That Recently Reduced American Mile Record Wins Handicap at Juarez, Wins Handicap at Juarez,

El Paso, Tex., January 21.—Jefferson Livingston's Bonne Chance, which recently distinguished himself by making a new American record for one mile, won the Escalon Handicap, which served as a feature at Juarez today. Bonne Chance was the favorite and justified the support given him by running a good face. He and New Haven set the pace on the back-stretch at a fast clip. Jockey Guy, the rider of New Haven, forced his mount along and, gaining an advantage in going to the turn, compelled Ford on Bonne Chance to take his mount up so sharply that he lost several lengths. Ford then sent him after the flying leader, overhauled him in the stretch, and won going away. Cantem outgamed New Haven, in the last stride for second money. Pay Streak, shouldering the top weight, broke sideways and the others had gone quite a distance before he got clearly into his stride. He made a game effort on the lower turn, but fell back badly in the final drive.

Favorites accounted for half the card. Beda, quoted at 100 to 1 for the fifth race, finished a game second to the tiring Seneca, the first choice. Beda received considerable support for place and show by those who thought her odds out of line.

Jockey R. Esten is riding as a free lance and is not under engagement to Roy G. Martin.

The stewards have given M. Shields the privilege of selling his horses, J. B. Robinson and Curlicue, and if a bona fide sale is made, they will be restored to good standing.

D. Ford purchased Belle of Bryn Mawr this morning from S. Veiller.

Dynamo, whener of the sixth race, was bid up by his former owner. M. Foley, from $400 to $500, at which figure W. S. Heath let him go.

General Manager M. J. Winn received word today that James Butler, weathly New York turfman and principal stockholder in the Juarez track, would be here with his family in time to witness the Iron Mask trial against time Sunday, February 1.

TENTATIVE EASTERN PLANS.

New York, January 21.—While no announcement has yet been made of the racing plans for the coming season beyond the fact that a number of stakes have been closed, the probable schedule has been discussed by representatives of the various racing associations. It has been about decided that the season will be more pretentious than in 1913 and probably the start will come earlier. Last year Belmont Park opened its gates May 30 (Decoration Day). For the coming year the start will not be made until some time in May, according to all that has been considered up to this time, but it will be earlier in the month, it has also been about decided that the New York dates will not be confined to Belmont Park and Saratoga. The Empire City course at Yonkers will undoubtedly have a meeting, and should there be racing each day instead of three days a week, one other of the Long Island tracks will be opened. Saratoga naturally will take the month of August, as formerly, and whether or not there will be any September racing over the city tracks is a question that has not yet been decided.

"MR, STOKES" JUMPERS IN ENGLAND.

Mrs. G. F. Rawlins is a well-known American woman of fashion and also an ardent admirer of cross-country racing. For several years past she has maintained a small stable in England devoted to that branch of sport, and races them under the assumed name of "Mr. Stokes." She now has ten horses there in charge of trainer E. Craven at Nepcote Lodge, Findon. All are American-bred, and she is a frequent winner with them. Her list in training is as follows:
